

Defense Health Agency – Correspondence Record

Subject: Appeal packet assembly: claim reconsideration

Case ID: CASE-41385 Control No: CTRL-160738 Date: 2025-08-09

This record may contain Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI). Handle per agency policy.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

Contact email: jane.smith@health.mil. This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

Phone: (822) 782-4896. This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

Address on record: 909 Massachusetts Ave, Washington, VA 21403. This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.

This section contains general narrative text related to case handling, policy references, and procedural steps. The material includes non-identifiable information, citations to public regulations, and descriptions of internal workflows. No personally identifying details are required in this paragraph, and any such details should be redacted prior to release. Teams frequently consult manual sections on disclosure, exemptions, and quality review before finalizing responses.